HISTORY OF LOWER TEN MILE CHURCH.

The Church was founded by Thaddeus Dodd, 1781.
A Graduate of Princeton College 1773. Pioneer Preacher and Educator. Founder and first pastor of the Upper and Lower Ten Mile Presbyterian Churches, 1779--1793.

Established the First Classical School west of the Allegheny Mountains in 1782. A Trustee and First Principal of Washington Academy--Chartered in 1787. Which was a forerunner of Washington and Jefferson College.

This Memorial upon the site of the first Log Church in the church yard (near) where he is buried, was erected in 1935.

By his descendants, The Two Churches He Served and
The Presbytery of Washington .Pa.

WAR BETWEEN THE STATES-----1

Hunter, William (Co.D.Pa.Regt Pvt.Reserves Killed at Belle Plains Va. Jan 30,1863--22

A Mr. Wallace, whose wife and three children were carried off by the Indians, on a raid. Two cows shot also Dogs and house burned, when he was away working near Bavington. When he came home he called for help and started to follow them. But a snow falling during the night, had to give ~~out~~ up the search. His wife giving out, she was shot and scalped also the baby, their bodies left a prey to wild beasts. He rebuilt the cabin and in the spring some hunters found the skeletons. He recognized them by his wife's teeth and gathered them up in a sack and kept it hanging by the head of his bed, and swore vengeance on the Indians. When the expedition was raised to go to Gneuhantan to punish the Christian Indians. His wrath knew no bounds when he entered the enclosure and met an Indian woman with his wife's dress on, covered with her blood and he was one of the men who slaughtered the Indians. Not all of the men would engage in it and retired at a distance. When it was all over he went to one of his neighbors and sat down on the log beside him and cried like a child, saying "Perhaps it was all wrong but the sight of my wife's dress drove me mad and crazy." They had bought it from the marauding Indians and other household untinsils was the real cause of the slaughter that day. His body lies buried in this cemetery, but no trace of a stone or marker could be found. He remarried in after years and raised a family--Covenanters.

Many old stones are gone. Cemetery in excellent condition. Beautifully located on a high hill with a white board fence around it. Church removed peice by peice to Cecil so that their work would be more fruitful among the coalminers etc.

Records taken by Mrs. B.E. Neal, Mrs Alice Patterson and Miss Elizabeth B. Weaver
August 25, 1937.

REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF MEDICINE

The American Medical Association is pleased to present this report on the progress of medicine during the year 1917. SOUTH BUFFALO UNITED PRESBYTERIAN GRAVEYARD.
(Near) U.S. Route #40, Atv Sunset Beach, Wash Co.
Pa.

This Graveyard is one of the oldest in the County. The South Buffalo Presbyterian Church was located at the site of the Graveyard, and was formed about the year 1800. In 1887 the church was removed to the town of Claysville and then called The Claysville Presbyterian (United Presbyterian).

Many of the old stones are crumbled down, some barely above the ground, and many not readable. Several of the old table stones are falling down if not down altogether. Many of the graves have been removed altogether to the Claysville Inc.

REVOLUTIONAR SOLDIERS-----	2
WAR BETWEEN THE STATES-----	24

An old stone on the corner in the town still stands
Where the Inn Keepers Daughter stood and gave the Regimental Flag to the Boys in Blue as they marched through on their way to the war.)

In the old town still stands one of "The Underground Railway Stations". Where the negroes were kept until a chance was given to hie them on to the next Station.)
Now in possession of "The Women's Club", as a Club House.

The town and vicinity has erected a fine monument to the Soldiers of all wars, who have passed on and are still living.

Records taken by Mrs. Alide Patterson &
Miss Elizabeth B. Weaver.
August 1937.

Licts of Soldiers on page 10.

Many old stones unreadable and a great many gone altogether.

There are two Confederate soldiers buried here, who died in the Prison Camp near Claysville.

Three emigrant women buried here, who died on their trek to the Ohio Territory when it was opened up.

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS

Patterson, Thomas 1764--1841--77

Records of this cemetery taken by Mrs. Alice Patterson and Miss Elizabeth B. Weaver.

FRANKLIN CEMETERY --- (METHODIST) Brook, Co. W. Va.

(Near Independence, Wash. Co. Pa. U.S. Route #28

Graves Taken from 1817----to 1880-----165

Oldest Interment Nov 20, 1817-Mrs Jane Strickler.
Nov 3, 1819-Rachel Hunter.

Cemetery in fine condition.

New Church and Parsonage across the road.

No Soldiers graves so marked.

One interesting grave was so marked by a stone to show that the man had been scalped (Close to road about 150 feet from lower corner)

This Graveyard is right on the path of the marauding Indians from the North West Territory, and many of the early inhabitants suffered from their depredations (Not far from the Ohio River) and the Graveyard contains so many odd stones portraying some phase of their suffering. Not found in other cemeteries. Right on a line of forts.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document further states that regular audits are essential to verify the accuracy of these records and to identify any discrepancies or errors. It also mentions that proper record-keeping is crucial for tax purposes and for providing a clear audit trail to stakeholders.

The second part of the document focuses on the role of management in overseeing the financial operations. It highlights that management should establish clear policies and procedures for financial reporting and ensure that all employees are trained and aware of these requirements. The document also discusses the importance of timely reporting and the need for management to review financial statements regularly to make informed decisions. Additionally, it mentions that management should maintain open communication with the board and other relevant parties regarding the company's financial health and performance.

The third part of the document addresses the issue of financial control and risk management. It explains that effective financial control involves implementing internal controls to prevent fraud and mismanagement of funds. This includes measures such as segregation of duties, authorization of transactions, and regular reconciliations. The document also discusses the importance of identifying and assessing financial risks, such as currency fluctuations and credit risk, and implementing strategies to mitigate these risks. It concludes by stating that strong financial control and risk management are essential for the long-term success and sustainability of the organization.
